

PERMIT TO ENGAGE IN FISHERY OPERATIONS WITHIN THE SOUTHWESTERN ALASKA FISHERIES RESERVATION

Permit No. 66-1923.

December 28, 1922.

John Delorme and James Wilson.
Chisik Island.

-----

A reservation designated as the Southwestern Alaska Fisheries Reservation having been created by the Executive Order of November 3, 1922, John Delorme and James Wilson, whose post office address is Anchorage, Alaska, are hereby authorized to operate a hand cannery for the preparation of salmon and clams on Chisik Island, within the Cook Inlet district of the said reservation during the calendar year 1923, under the following conditions:

1. That the permittees may operate four (4) gill-nets, of which two shall be for king salmon and two for red salmon, and may operate on any clam beds in Cook Inlet, except for two miles of beach each side of the mouth of Paulie creek where the Polar Fisheries Company alone has permission to continue operations.
2. That the pack of all species of salmon shall not exceed two hundred (200) cases, computed on the basis of 48 one-pound cans per case.
3. That the permittees shall observe the existing laws and regulations for the protection of the fisheries of Alaska and for the administration of the said reservation (copies of which are attached hereto and the conditions of which are made a part of this permit), as well as those that may hereafter be enacted or promulgated for such purposes.
4. That this permit expires December 31, 1923, is not transferable, and is revocable at any time at the pleasure of the Secretary of Commerce.

C. H. HUSTON

Secretary of Commerce.
